

TOMI REICHENTAL, HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR

Hosted a Talk in St Philomena's on Saturday, 22 March 2014

Tomi Reichental was born in 1935 in Slovakia.

In 1944, he was captured and deported to Bergen Belsen concentration camp with his mother, grandmother, brother, aunt and cousin.

When he was liberated in April 1945, he discovered that 35 members of his extended family were murdered - Grandparents, uncles, aunts and cousins all died in the Holocaust.

He is one of the few Holocaust survivors living in Ireland which made his visit to our Parish such a rare opportunity.

