

Getting Ready for Sunday!

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go.

He said to them:

The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road.

As Jesus sent His disciples out in the Gospel, He sends us out in His name today!

We don't need anything except our own gifts to do God's will!

Whatever house you enter, first say:

Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you.

Followers of Jesus share Peace with others!

The gift of peace is found in accepting that we are loved by God.

The gift of peace is also found in doing what we know is right and just.

Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.

Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them:

The kingdom of God has come near to you.

But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, “Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.” I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

The seventy returned with joy, saying:

Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us

He said to them:

I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning.

We too destroy evil
when we stand up for what is right for ourselves and for others!

See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven

God trusts us so much that He has given us power to be Christ for others.
