How does Missio Ireland work?

- Missio Ireland is the Irish branch of the Pontifical Mission Societies, which is the Holy Father's official charity for overseas mission.
- All projects are submitted to Pontifical Mission Societies Rome, where they are vetted.
- All Mission Sunday collections in Ireland fund mission projects in the coming year. All funds collected are audited. Missio Ireland makes known to Rome how much we have available for projects in a given year. Missio Ireland then receives projects from PMS Rome that match the amount available.
- Money is sent directly from Ireland to the Nuncio in the recipient country, and he forwards the money to the bishop of the relevant diocese and he sends them to the project recipients.

What is World Mission Sunday?

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal in support of overseas mission. It takes place in very parish worldwide where the Church is present.

Who organises World Mission Sunday?

Missio Ireland coordinates World Mission Sunday. It is part of a global network, serving the Church in over 1,130 dioceses worldwide.

Why is World Mission Sunday so important?

All donations received on Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This Fund is essential, not only for missionaries, but for the future of the Church. It supports missionary activities in over 1,130 mission dioceses, mostly found in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Where funds collected in 2025 were distributed

Funds collected in 2025 were used for a range of projects in the following countries: Antilles, Bangladesh, Bolivia, Cameroun, Kenya, Panama, Peru, Senegal and Sri Lanka for the following: support for children's projects, construction of churches as well as the renovation of presbyteries. 1,000 churches were supported through worldwide solidarity funds. Some of the funding each year also supports catechists. Catechists are vital, especially in very large rural parishes, where the priest cannot reach all areas of his parish too often due to its size. The Pontifical Mission Societies globally support approximately 844,000 catechists. Funds also support seminarians' upkeep as well as their academic formation. Worldwide, seminarians reside in 725 seminaries, and there are more than 83,000 seminarians worldwide. Over 250,000 Religious Sisters worldwide are aided in their ministries.
